The conduct of Defendants complained of herein involves a knowing and culpable violation of their obligations as directors and officers of Galena, the absence of good faith on their part, and a reckless disregard for their duties to the Company and its shareholders that Defendants were aware, or should have been aware, posed a risk of serious injury to the Company.

SUBSTANTIVE ALLEGATIONS

Background

33. Galena's first commercial product was Abstral which was approved to treat pain in cancer patients who were already receiving, and who are tolerant to, opioid treatment for their persistent baseline cancer.

34. On November 9, 2015, the Company filed a Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2015 (the "3Q15 10-Q") with the SEC. The 3Q15 10-Q was signed by Defendants Schwartz and Dunlap. In this 3Q15 10-Q and under Risk Factors, Galena announced plans to discontinue its commercial operations and sell or otherwise dispose of its marketed products, Abstral and Zuplenz, stating in relevant part:

We have determined to sell or otherwise dispose of our marketed products, Abstral and Zuplenz, and discontinue our commercial operations in order to focus our resources on our clinical development programs. There can be no assurance that any sale of our marketed products could be completed in a timely manner, on a cost-effective basis, on terms favorable to us, or at all.

* * *

We believe that our strategy will result in significant future net savings to us, but there is no assurance that we will obtain any significant proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our commercial operations or that the process will result in significant value for our stockholders. If we sell or discontinue our commercial operations, we will have no recurring revenue unless and until we are able to obtain marketing approval of one or more of our product candidates. [Emphasis added].

35. On November 20, 2015, in a Form 8-K Report filed with the SEC and in a contemporaneous press release, Galena announced that it sold Abstral to a private company in a deal valued at up to $12 million.

MATERIALLY FALSE AND MISLEADING STATEMENTS MADE DURING THE RELEVANT PERIOD

36. On August 11, 2014, the Company filed a Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2014 (the “2Q14 10-Q”) with the SEC. The 2Q14 10-Q was signed by Ahn and Dunlap. Attached to the 2Q14 10-Q were certifications pursuant to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 (“SOX”) signed by Ahn and Dunlap attesting to the accuracy of the financial statements, the disclosure of any material changes to the Company’s internal control over financial reporting and the disclosure all fraud was disclosed.

37. The 2Q14 10-Q discussed the selling of Abstral, stating in relevant part:

We sell Abstral product in the United States to wholesale pharmaceutical distributors and retail pharmacies, or our “customers,” subject to rights of return. We recognize Abstral product sales at the time title transfers to our customer, and provide allowances for estimated future product returns, prompt pay discounts, wholesaler discounts, rebates, chargebacks, patient assistance program benefits and other deductions as needed. The company is required to make significant judgments and estimates in determining some of these allowances. If actual results differ from its estimates, the company will be required to make adjustments to these allowances in the future.

38. On March 5, 2015, the Company filed its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2014 (the “2014 10-K”) with the SEC. The 2014 10-K was signed by Schwartz and Dunlap. Attached to the 2014 10-K were signed SOX certifications by Schwartz and Dunlap attesting to the accuracy of the financial statements, the disclosure of any material changes to the Company’s internal control over financial reporting and the disclosure all fraud was disclosed.

39. The 2014 10-K discussed the selling of Abstral, stating in relevant part:

Abstral Target Revenue Achieved -- We achieved our target net revenue from the sale of Abstral for 2014.

On March 5, 2015, we announced our results of operations from the quarter and the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, including net revenue of $9.3 million from the sale of Abstral. We also reiterated our 2015 net revenue expectations of $15 million to $18 million.

We sell Abstral product in the United States to wholesale pharmaceutical distributors and retail pharmacies, or collectively, our “customers,” subject to rights of return. During the year ended December 31, 2013, we began recognizing Abstral product sales at the time title transfers to our customer, and providing for an estimate of future product returns. Revenue from product sales is recorded net of provisions for estimated returns, prompt pay discounts, wholesaler discounts, rebates, chargebacks, patient assistance program rebates and other deductions as needed. Refer to Note 1 of the notes to the consolidated financial statements for a detailed description of these reserves.

40. The statements contained in ¶¶ 36-39 were materially false and/or misleading because they misrepresented and failed to disclose the following adverse facts pertaining to the Company’s business, operations and prospects, which were known to Defendants or recklessly disregarded by them. Specifically, Defendants made false and/or misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (a) the Company’s sales of Abstral were based on unsustainable sales and marketing practices; (b) such sales and marketing practices could subject the Company to a criminal investigation; and (c) as a result, Defendants’ statements about the Company’s business, operations, and prospects, were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

THE TRUTH EMERGES

41. On December 22, 2015, Galena filed a Form 8-K with the SEC signed by Schwartz disclosing that Galena received a subpoena from the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of New Jersey, stating in relevant part:

broad range of documents pertaining to marketing and promotional practices related to the product ABSTRAL® (fentanyl) Sublingual Tablets. Galena intends to cooperate with the government's investigation. Galena can make no assurances as to the time or resources that will need to be devoted to this inquiry or its final outcome, or the impact, if any, of this inquiry or any proceedings on Galena's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

42. On this news, shares of Galena fell $0.06 per share or over 3.6% from its previous closing price to close at $1.57 per share on December 23, 2015, damaging investors.

43. On March 10, 2016, the Company filed its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2015 (the "2015 10-K") with the SEC. The 2015 10-K was signed by Schwartz and Burns. Attached to the 2015 10-K were signed SOX certifications by Schwartz and Burns attesting to the accuracy of the financial statements, the disclosure of any material changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting and the disclosure all fraud was disclosed.

44. The 2015 10-K discussed the selling of Abstral, stating in relevant part:

We sold Abstral product in the United States to wholesale pharmaceutical distributors and retail pharmacies, or collectively, our "customers," subject to rights of return. During the year ended December 31, 2013, we began recognizing Abstral product sales at the time title transfers to our customer, and providing for an estimate of future product returns. Revenue from product sales is recorded net of provisions for estimated returns, prompt pay discounts, wholesaler discounts, rebates, chargebacks, patient assistance program rebates and other deductions as needed.

45. The 2015 10-K also discussed the subpoena the Company received from the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, stating in relevant part:

A federal investigation of two of the high-prescribing physicians for Abstral has resulted in the criminal prosecution of the two physicians for alleged violations of the federal False Claims Act and other federal statutes. The criminal trial is set for some time in 2016. We have received a trial subpoena for documents in connection with that investigation and we have been in contact with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Alabama, which is handling the criminal trial, and are cooperating in the production of documents. We are a target or subject of that investigation. There also have been federal and state investigations of a company that has a product that competes with Abstral in the same therapeutic class, and we have learned that the FDA and other governmental agencies may be investigating our Abstral promotion practices. On December 16, 2015, we received a subpoena issued by the U.S. Attorney's Office in District of New Jersey requesting the production of a broad range of documents pertaining to our marketing and promotional practices for Abstral. We have been in contact with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and are cooperating in the production of the requested documents. We are unable to predict whether we could become subject to legal or administrative actions as a result of these matters, or the impact of such matters. If we are found to be in violation of the False Claims Act, Anti-Kickback Statute, Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, or any other applicable state or any federal fraud and abuse laws, we may be subject to penalties, such as civil and criminal penalties, damages, fines, or an administrative action of exclusion from government health care reimbursement programs. We can make no assurances as to the time or resources that will need to be devoted to these matters or their outcome, or the impact, if any, that these matters or any resulting legal or administrative proceedings may have on our business or financial condition.

The federal False Claims Act prohibits persons from knowingly filing, or causing to be filed, a false claim to, or the knowing use of false statements to obtain payment from, the federal government. Qui tam suits filed under the False Claims Act can be brought by any individual on behalf of the government and such individuals, commonly known as "relators" or "whistleblowers," may share in any amounts paid by the entity to the government in fines or settlement. The frequency of filing qui tam actions has increased significantly in recent years, causing greater numbers of health care companies to have to defend such qui tam actions and pay substantial sums to settle such actions.

46. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the two high prescribing physicians mentioned in the 2015 10-K (see ¶ 45, above) are Dr. Xiulu Ruan and Dr. John Patrick Couch, who were the principals of Physicians Pain Specialists of Alabama clinics and also co-owned C&R Pharmacy.

47. On this news, shares of Galena fell $0.03 per share from its previous closing price to close at $0.86 per share on March 11, 2016, damaging investors.

48. The statements contained in ¶¶ 43-45 were materially false and/or misleading because they misrepresented and failed to disclose the following adverse facts pertaining to the Company's business, operations and prospects, which were known to Defendants or recklessly disregarded by them. Specifically, Defendants made false and/or misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (a) the Company's sales of Abstral were based on unsustainable sales and marketing practices; (b) such sales and marketing practices could subject the company to a criminal investigation; and (c) as a result, Defendants' statements about the Company's business, operations, and prospects, were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

49. On April 29, 2016, the Company filed its 3rd amended annual report on Form 10-K/A for the year ending December 31, 2015 (the "2015 10-K/A") with the SEC. The 2015 10-K/A was signed by Schwartz. Attached to the 2015 10-K/A were signed SOX certifications by Schwartz and Burns attesting to the accuracy of the financial statements, the disclosure of any material changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting and the disclosure all fraud was disclosed.

50. In the 2015 10-K/A, Galena disclosed for the first time that on December 17, 2015, the day after it received a subpoena from the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey requesting the production of a broad range of documents pertaining to marketing and promotional practices related to Abstral (see ¶ 41, above), the Compensation Committee met and recommended that the Board of Directors approve a grant to Schwartz of a stock option to purchase 1,250,000 shares of common stock. On December 18, 2015, the Board of Directors approved this recommendation. Under the Executive Compensation section, the 2015 10-K/A states in relevant part:

Overview

As a result of certain revisions to its charter, the Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving the compensation of our executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) whose compensation is recommended by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Directors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis set forth in this Proxy Statement.

Equity Incentive Compensation

At a meeting on December 17, 2015, our Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors for approval a grant to Dr. Schwartz of a stock option to purchase 1,250,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $1.50 per share, which equaled the closing market price on the date of grant. The options will vest quarterly over four years, unless Dr. Schwartz's employment is terminated by us without "cause," or by Dr. Schwartz for "good reason," in which case they continue to vest over a 12-month severance period. On December 18, 2015, the Board of Directors approved the recommendation of the Compensation Committee....

51. In the 2015 10-K/A, the Company also disclosed that at the same December 17, 2015 Compensation Committee meeting, and in addition to its recommended (and Board approved) stock option grant to Schwartz, it approved and awarded stock options to Bijan Nejadnik (Chief Medical Officer) and Thomas Knapp (General Counsel).

52. Related to this December 17, 2015 Compensation Committee meeting and its decision making process, on May 24, 2016 the Company filed a Preliminary Proxy Statement (the “Pre-14A”). Under the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, the Pre-14A states in relevant part:

Overview

As a result of certain revisions to its charter, the Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving the compensation of our executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) whose compensation is recommended by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Directors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis set forth in this Proxy Statement.

Role of Executive Officers in Compensation Decisions

We conduct an annual review of executive compensation, generally in the fourth quarter of the year in review, with a presentation by our CEO to the Compensation Committee regarding each element of our executive compensation arrangements. The Compensation Committee’s most recent review occurred on December 17, 2015 with respect to our annual cash bonuses and stock option grants for 2015 and increases in base salaries for 2016. At the Compensation Committee’s direction our CEO prepares an executive compensation review for each named executive officer and himself....

53. On August 8, 2016, the Company filed its 10-Q for the quarterly period ending June 30, 2016 (the “2Q16 10-Q”) with the SEC. The 2Q16 10-Q was signed by Schwartz and Burns. Attached to the 2Q16 10-Q were certifications pursuant to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 (“SOX”) signed by Schwartz and Burns attesting to the accuracy of the financial statements, the disclosure of any material changes to the Company’s internal control over financial reporting and the disclosure all fraud was disclosed.

54. Under Legal Proceedings, the 2Q16 10-Q states in relevant part:

A federal investigation of two of the high-prescribing physicians for Abstral has resulted in the criminal prosecution of the two physicians for alleged violations of the federal False Claims Act and other federal statutes. The criminal trial is set for October 2016. We have received a trial subpoena for documents in connection with that investigation and we have been in contact with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Alabama, which is handling the criminal trial, and are cooperating in the production of documents. On April 28, 2016, a second superseding indictment was filed in the criminal case, which added additional information about the defendant physicians and provided information regarding the facts and circumstances involving a rebate agreement between the Company and the defendant physicians' pharmacy as well as their ownership of our stock. Certain former employees have received trial subpoenas to appear at the trial and provide oral testimony. We have agreed to reimburse those former employees' attorney's fees. To our knowledge, we are not a target or subject of that investigation.

There also have been federal and state investigations of a company that has a product that competes with Abstral in the same therapeutic class, and we have learned that the FDA and other governmental agencies are investigating our Abstral promotion practices. On December 16, 2015, we received a subpoena issued by the U.S. Attorney's Office in District of New Jersey requesting the production of a broad range of documents pertaining to our marketing and promotional practices for Abstral. We have been in contact with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and are cooperating in the production of the requested documents. We are unable to predict whether we could become subject to legal or administrative actions as a result of these matters, or the impact of such matters. If we are found to be in violation of the False Claims Act, Anti-Kickback Statute, Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, or any other applicable state or any federal fraud and abuse laws, we may be subject to penalties, such as civil and criminal penalties, damages, fines, or an administrative action of exclusion from government health care reimbursement programs. We can make no assurances as to the time or resources that will need to be devoted to these matters or their outcome, or the impact, if any, that these matters or any resulting legal or administrative proceedings may have on our business or financial condition. 55. On this news, shares of Galena fell $0.03 per share from its previous closing price to close at $.046 per share on August 9, 2016, damaging investors

56. On January 9, 2017, before the market opened, the Company filed a Form 8-K with the SEC to give an update on the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and disclosing a criminal investigation, stating in relevant part:

Abstral Investigation

As previously disclosed, on December 16, 2015, we received a subpoena issued by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey requesting the production of a broad range of documents pertaining to our marketing and promotional practices for Abstral, the commercial product we sold in the fourth quarter of 2015. We have been in contact with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and Department of Justice, and we have come understand that the investigation being undertaken by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and Department of Justice is a criminal investigation in addition to a civil investigation that could ultimately involve the Company as well as one or more current and/or former employees. Pursuant to the Company's charter, we are currently reimbursing any former and current employees' attorney's fees with respect to the investigation. We are cooperating with the civil and criminal investigation, and through our outside counsel we have recently begun preliminary discussions with the government aimed at the ultimate resolution of the investigation regarding the Company.

57. On this news, shares of Galena fell $0.04 per share or over 1.9% from its previous closing price to close at $2.03 per share on January 9, 2017, further damaging investors.

58. On January 31, 2017, Galena filed an 8-K with the SEC announcing the resignation of Schwartz, which stated in part:

On January 31, 2017, Galena Biopharma, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release announcing the resignation of Mark W. Schwartz, Ph.D. as President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Company and its affiliates, effective immediately....

[...] Effective January 31, 2017, Dr. Schwartz resigned from his position as President and Chief Executive Officer and as a member of the board of directors of each of Galena Biopharma, Inc., Apthera, Inc. and Mills Pharmaceutical, LLC (collectively, the “Companies”). For purposes of Dr. Schwartz’ Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz’ resignation was without “Good Reason”.

[...] In connection with his resignation, on January 31, 2017, the Company executed a Separation Agreement and General Release with Dr. Schwartz and terminated the Dr. Schwartz’ Employment Agreement effective as of the resignation date. The Separation Agreement will be filed with the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2016. The Separation Agreement provides, among other things, for the following: (a) Dr. Schwartz shall, within three days of January 31, 2017, receive his final paycheck and any unpaid vacation; (b) Dr. Schwartz shall receive $302,068.86 less required tax withholdings and authorized deductions, which is equal to six (6) months of the Employee’s final base salary and six (6) months of the cost for continued health benefits coverage under COBRA....

59. On January 31, 2017, the Company issued a press release (as referenced in paragraph 58, above) entitled, “Galena Biopharma Announces the Resignation of its President and Chief Executive Officer and the Evaluation of Strategic Alternatives,” stating in relevant part:

San Ramon, California, January 31, 2017— Galena Biopharma, Inc. (NASDAQ: GALE), a biopharmaceutical company committed to the development and commercialization of hematology and oncology therapeutics that address unmet medical needs, today announced that the Board of Directors has entered into a separation agreement with Mark W. Schwartz, Ph.D. under which Dr. Schwartz will resign from the company and its affiliates as the President, Chief Executive Officer, and member of the Board of Directors, effective today. The Board of Directors expects to appoint an Interim Chief Executive Officer in the next couple weeks.

The Board of Directors also announced that it is in the process of engaging an independent advisory firm to evaluate strategic alternatives for the company focused on maximizing stockholder value. Potential strategic alternatives that may be explored or evaluated as part of this review include continuing to advance the clinical programs as a stand-alone entity, a sale of the company, a business combination, merger or reverse merger, and a license or other disposition of corporate assets of the company. There is no set timetable for this process and there can be no assurance that this process will result in a transaction. While the Company evaluates its strategic alternatives, Galena's investigator-sponsored immunotherapy trials will remain ongoing. The Company is evaluating the appropriate time to commence the GALE-401 trial and anticipates making a definitive determination in the second half of 2017.

"After critical assessment of the current status of the company, we believe that it is the right time to run a strategic evaluation of our opportunities as we look to maximize value for our stockholders," said Sanford J. Hillsberg, Galena's Chairman of the Board of Directors. "We acknowledge Mark's six years of service with Galena and wish him well in his future endeavors."

60. On that same day, TheStreet.com published an article entitled "Galena Sacks CEO Amid Escalating Criminal Probe Into Fentanyl Drug Marketing," noting the timing of Defendant Schwartz' exit coincided with the Company's admission of a criminal investigation and his outsized role in the marketing of Abstral, stating in relevant part:

Galena Sacks CEO Amid Escalating Criminal Probe Into Fentanyl Drug Marketing

The timing of Schwartz' exit is noteworthy given Galena's admission on Jan. 9 of a criminal investigation of the company by the federal prosecutors into the marketing of Abstral.

* * *

Galena Biopharma (GALE) sacked CEO Mark Schwartz on Tuesday, marking the second time in less than three years that the troubled drug company's board fired its top executive. The timing of Schwartz' exit is noteworthy given Galena's admission on Jan. 9 of a criminal investigation of the company by the U.S. Attorney's Office in New Jersey and the U.S. Department of Justice. The Feds are investigating Galena's marketing and promotional practices for Abstral, the company's fentanyl based painkiller, according to an 8K filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Schwartz was instrumental in Galena acquiring Abstral in 2013 and played a significant role in the drug's marketing, according to former employees. Galena divested Abstral in 2015.

61. On this news, shares of Galena fell $0.53 per share or over 32% over the next two trading days to close at $1.12 per share on February 2, 2017, further damaging investors.

62. On February 22, 2017, and in the criminal trial against Dr. Ruan and Dr. Couch (see ¶¶ 45 and 54, above), both doctors were found guilty on virtually all counts of operating a “pill mill”. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the Ruan/Couch criminal trial, the following evidence was introduced, establishing:

- (a) Dr. Ruan and Dr. Couch jointly ran C&R Pharmacy. Nine out of 10 prescriptions filled at the pharmacy from April 2012 to May 2015 were for the Fentanyl-based pain medications Subsys and Abstral.
- (b) Dr. Ruan and Dr. Couch doctors bought a significant number of shares of Galena Biopharma, the company that supplied Abstral during that period.
- (c) During that period Galena Biopharma's share price grew from $7 a share to $60 a share.
- (d) C&R Pharmacy also set up a rebate program with Galena that both doctors allegedly profited from.
- (e) Charts showing the amount of prescriptions for Abstral written in 2014:
  - 1,302 - Dr. Ruan
  - 649 - Dr. Couch
  - 611 - Dr. Rowe

Allegedly, Dr. Rowe was also a friend of Dr. Ruan and that the next competitor after those three doctors only wrote 153 Abstral prescriptions.

- (f) Drs. Ruan and Couch prescribed 68,116 and 45,285 units of fentanyl, respectively, during the time frame of the indictment, making the doctors the number one and number two prescribers of the drug in Alabama. At other points relevant to the indictment, they were the top prescribers of Subsys and Abstral in the entire country.

- (g) The Assistant U.S. Attorney stated that Drs. Ruan and Couch were “very important” to Insys and Galena claiming that top executives from both pharmaceutical companies had traveled from Arizona and Oregon, respectively, to meet the doctors in Mobile.
- (h) An email chain was introduced where a pharmaceutical company executive assured Dr. Ruan that a particular pain medication, Abstral, was not directly implicated in the Michigan case, but was merely one of a class of drugs that Dr. Awerbuch was accused of dispensing improperly.

DERIVATIVE AND DEMAND FUTILITY ALLEGATIONS

63. Plaintiff brings this action derivatively in the right and for the benefit of the Company to redress injuries suffered and to be suffered as a direct and proximate result of the breaches of fiduciary duties and gross mismanagement by Defendants.

64. Plaintiff will adequately and fairly represent the interests of the Company and its shareholders in enforcing and prosecuting its rights and has retained counsel competent and experienced in derivative litigation.

65. Plaintiff is a current owner of Galena stock and has continuously been an owner of Galena stock during all times relevant to Defendants’ illegal and wrongful course of conduct alleged herein. Plaintiff understands his obligation to hold stock throughout the duration of this action and are prepared to do so.

66. During wrongful course of conduct at the Company, the Board consisted of the Director Defendants. Because of the facts set forth throughout this Complaint, demand on the Board to institute this action is not necessary because such a demand would have been a futile and useless act.

67. The Galena Board is currently comprised of seven (7) members – Defendants Ashton, Chin, Einhorn, Galliker, Gray, Hillsberg, and Nisi. Thus, Plaintiff is required to show that a majority of the Demand Defendants, i.e., four (4), cannot exercise independent objective judgment about whether to bring this action or whether to vigorously prosecute this action.

68. The Director Defendants face a substantial likelihood of liability in this action because they caused the Company to issue false and misleading statements concerning its future prospects. Because of their advisory, executive, managerial, and directorial positions with the Company, each of the Defendants had knowledge of material non-public information regarding the Company and was directly involved in the operations of the Company at the highest levels.

69. Defendants either knew or should have known of the false and misleading statements that were issued on the Company's behalf and took no steps in a good faith effort to prevent or remedy that situation.

70. The Director Defendants (or at the very least a majority of them) cannot exercise independent objective judgment about whether to bring this action or whether to vigorously prosecute this action. For the reasons that follow, and for reasons detailed elsewhere in this complaint, Plaintiff has not made (and should be excused from making) a pre-filing demand on the Board to initiate this action because making a demand would be a futile and useless act.

71. Each of the Defendants approved and/or permitted the wrongs alleged herein to have occurred and participated in efforts to conceal or disguise those wrongs from the Company's stockholders or recklessly and/or with gross negligence disregarded the wrongs complained of herein, and are therefore not disinterested parties.

72. Each of the Defendants authorized and/or permitted the false statements to be disseminated directly to the public and made available and distributed to shareholders, authorized and/or permitted the issuance of various false and misleading statements, and are principal beneficiaries of the wrongdoing alleged herein, and thus, could not fairly and fully prosecute such a suit even if they instituted it.

73. Because of their participation in the gross dereliction of fiduciary duties, and breaches of the duties of due care, good faith, and loyalty, Defendants are unable to comply with their fiduciary duties and prosecute this action. Each of them is in a position of irreconcilable conflict of interest in terms of the prosecution of this action and defending themselves in the securities fraud class action lawsuit brought under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

74. Additionally, each of the Defendants received payments, benefits, stock options, and other emoluments by virtue of their membership on the Board and their control of the Company.

THE DIRECTOR DEFENDANTS ARE NOT INDEPENDENT OR DISINTERESTED

Defendant Hillsberg

75. In its Pre-14A and in other Galena filings with the SEC, the Company admits that Hillsberg is not independent because of his relationship with the law firm TroyGould PC, where he is an executive officer. TroyGould PC has served as Galena's outside corporate counsel and has been paid millions of dollars for its years of legal service to Galena. Thus defendants have admitted that defendant Hillsberg lacks independence from demonstrably interested directors, rendering him incapable of impartially considering a demand to commence and vigorously prosecute this action. This admission of Hillsberg's non-independence has also appeared on Galena's website, and as discussed and displayed in ¶ 76, below.

Defendant Ashton

76. According to the Company, Ashton is not independent. Galena's website contained a list of non-employee directors, with an "I" designating a director as independent. As illustrated below, Defendants have not conferred such a designation on defendant Ashton (see <http://investors.galenabiopharma.com/committees.cfm>). Thus defendants have admitted that Ashton lacks independence from demonstrably interested directors, rendering him incapable of impartially considering a demand to commence and vigorously prosecute this action.

Committee Composition

	Audit	Compensation	Nominating and Governance	Ad Hoc (Strategy, Pricing, etc)
+ William L. Ashton
+ Dr. Richard Chin, M.D. I
+ Stephen S. Galliker I
+ Sanford J. Hillsberg ★
+ Steven A. Kriegsman I
+ Dr. Rudolph Nisi, M.D. I

★ = Chair of the Board     = Chair     = Member    I = Independent Director

77. Additionally, Ashton was a member of the Board of Directors and Galena's Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominating, and Ad Hoc committees when Schwartz resigned and entered into a Separation Agreement with Galena. As discussed herein, Ashton approved the award of performance based stock options to Schwartz the day after Galena received a subpoena requiring production of document relating to the marketing and promotion of Abstral. Ashton abdicated his oversight and other director fiduciary duties by failing to complete any due diligence relating to this matter prior to approving and recommending this stock option award to Schwartz. Further, in its January 31, 2017 8-K which announced the resignation of Schwartz, Galena states that “[f]or purposes of Dr. Schwartz’ Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz’ resignation was without “Good Reason”. Schwartz’s severance payment (in excess of $300,000.00) included amounts that would not have been paid had he been terminated “for cause” as defined by his Employment Agreement. Ashton failed to implement the Termination provisions of the Schwartz Employment Agreement, notwithstanding the escalating issues associated with governmental investigation of Galena’s Abstral marketing and promotional practices.

78. Based upon the foregoing and other facts contained herein, Aston faces a substantial likelihood of liability for his breach of fiduciary duties and any demand upon him is futile.

Defendant Nisi

79. Nisi has a historical relationship with Hillsberg, an admitted non-independent director of Galena, which Plaintiff is informed and believes the Company never disclosed in any of its public filings. Nisi served as a director of ImmunoCellular Therapeutics, Ltd. while Hillsberg was its Secretary. This Galena disclosure failure raises red flags and supports the conclusion that Nisi is also not independent.

80. Additionally, Nisi was a member of the Board of Directors and Galena’s Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominating, and Audit committees when Schwartz resigned and entered into a Separation Agreement with Galena. As discussed herein, Nisi approved the award of performance based stock options to Schwartz the day after Galena received a subpoena requiring production of document relating to the marketing and promotion of Abstral. Nisi abdicated his oversight and other director fiduciary duties by failing to complete any due diligence relating to this matter prior to approving and recommending this stock option award to Schwartz. Further, in its January 31, 2017 8-K which announced the resignation of Schwartz, Galena states that “[f]or purposes of Dr. Schwartz’ Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz’ resignation was without “Good Reason”. Schwartz’s severance payment (in excess of $300,000.00) included amounts that would not have been paid had he been terminated “for cause” as defined by his Employment Agreement. Nisi failed to implement the Termination provisions of the Schwartz Employment Agreement, notwithstanding the escalating issues associated with governmental investigation of Galena’s Abstral marketing and promotional practices.

81. Based upon the foregoing and other facts contained herein, Nisi faces a substantial likelihood of liability for his breach of fiduciary duties and any demand upon him is futile.

Defendant Galliker

82. Galliker was a member of the Board of Directors and Galena’s Compensation, and Audit committees when Schwartz resigned and entered into a Separation Agreement with Galena. As discussed herein, Galliker approved the award of performance based stock options to Schwartz the day after Galena received a subpoena requiring production of document relating to the marketing and promotion of Abstral. Galliker abdicated his oversight and other director fiduciary duties by failing to complete any due diligence relating to this matter prior to approving and recommending this stock option award to Schwartz. Further, in its January 31, 2017 8-K which announced the resignation of Schwartz, Galena states that “[f]or purposes of Dr. Schwartz’ Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz’ resignation was without “Good Reason”. Schwartz’s severance payment (in excess of $300,000.00) included amounts that would not have been paid had he been terminated “for cause” as defined by his Employment Agreement. Galliker failed to implement the Termination provisions of the Schwartz Employment Agreement, notwithstanding the escalating issues associated with governmental investigation of Galena’s Abstral marketing and promotional practices.

83. Based upon the foregoing and other facts contained herein, Galliker faces a substantial likelihood of liability for his breach of fiduciary duties and any demand upon him is futile.

Defendant Chin

84. Chin was a member of the Board of Directors and Galena’s Compensation, and Corporate Governance and Nominating committees when Schwartz resigned and entered into a Separation Agreement with Galena. As discussed herein, Chin approved the award of performance based stock options to Schwartz the day after Galena received a subpoena requiring production of document relating to the marketing and promotion of Abstral. Chin abdicated his oversight and other director fiduciary duties by failing to complete any due diligence relating to this matter prior to approving and recommending this stock option award to Schwartz. Further, in its January 31, 2017 8-K which announced the resignation of Schwartz, Galena states that “[f]or purposes of Dr. Schwartz’ Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz’ resignation was without “Good Reason”. Schwartz’s severance payment (in excess of $300,000.00) included amounts that would not have been paid had he been terminated “for cause” as defined by his Employment Agreement. Chin failed to implement the Termination provisions of the Schwartz Employment Agreement, notwithstanding the escalating issues associated with governmental investigation of Galena’s Abstral marketing and promotional practices.

85. Based upon the foregoing and other facts contained herein, Chin faces a substantial likelihood of liability for his breach of fiduciary duties and any demand upon him is futile.

Defendant Gray

86. Gray was a member of the Board of Directors and Galena's Compensation, and Audit committees when Schwartz resigned and entered into a Separation Agreement with Galena. As discussed herein, Gray approved the award of performance based stock options to Schwartz the day after Galena received a subpoena requiring production of document relating to the marketing and promotion of Abstral. Gray abdicated her oversight and other director fiduciary duties by failing to complete any due diligence relating to this matter prior to approving and recommending this stock option award to Schwartz. Further, in its January 31, 2017 8-K which announced the resignation of Schwartz, Galena states that "[f]or purposes of Dr. Schwartz' Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz' resignation was without "Good Reason". Schwartz's severance payment (in excess of $300,000.00) included amounts that would not have been paid had he been terminated "for cause" as defined by his Employment Agreement. Gray failed to implement the Termination provisions of the Schwartz Employment Agreement, notwithstanding the escalating issues associated with governmental investigation of Galena's Abstral marketing and promotional practices.

87. Additionally, Gray was a Director of Aphera, Inc. while Schwartz was its President and CEO. She also served as a Director of Dyax Corp. while Galliker served in various executive officer positions for Dyax.

88. Based upon the foregoing and other facts contained herein, Gray faces a substantial likelihood of liability for his breach of fiduciary duties and any demand upon her is futile.

Defendant Einhorn

89. Einhorn was a member of the Board of Directors and Galena's Nominating and Governance Committee, and Audit committees when Schwartz resigned and entered into a Separation Agreement with Galena. As discussed herein, Einhorn approved the award of performance based stock options to Schwartz the day after Galena received a subpoena requiring production of document relating to the marketing and promotion of Abstral. Einhorn abdicated his oversight and other director fiduciary duties by failing to complete any due diligence relating to this matter prior to approving and recommending this stock option award to Schwartz. Further, in its January 31, 2017 8-K which announced the resignation of Schwartz, Galena states that "[f]or purposes of Dr. Schwartz' Employment Agreement, dated as of August 21, 2014, Dr. Schwartz' resignation was without "Good Reason". Schwartz's severance payment (in excess of $300,000.00) included amounts that would not have been paid had he been terminated "for cause" as defined by his Employment Agreement. Einhorn failed to implement the Termination provisions of the Schwartz Employment Agreement, notwithstanding the escalating issues associated with governmental investigation of Galena's Abstral marketing and promotional practices.

90. Based upon the foregoing and other facts contained herein, Einhorn faces a substantial likelihood of liability for his breach of fiduciary duties and any demand upon him is futile.

Nominating and Governance Committee - Defendants Ashton, Chin, Einhorn, Gray, and Nisi

91. As members of the Nominating and Governance Committee, Ashton, Chin, Einhorn, Gray, and Nisi had a duty, among other things, to annually review the corporate governance guidelines of the Company; and monitor and evaluate the performance of the Board and lead the Board in an annual self-assessment of its practices and effectiveness.

92. Ashton, Chin, Einhorn, Gray, and Nisi breached their fiduciary duty of loyalty by failing to ensure that the Company had an adequate system of internal controls in place to prevent improper marketing and promotion of Abstral by the Company, and failure to truthfully and timely report on these events. Accordingly, Ashton, Chin, Einhorn, Gray, and Nisi breached their fiduciary duties in failing to implement such internal controls and, therefore, face a substantial likelihood of liability.

93. Demand in this case is also excused as to Ashton, Chin, Einhorn, Gray, and Nisi because they (among the others) control the Company and are beholden to each other.

Audit Committee Members - Defendants Einhorn, Galliker, Gray, and Nisi

94. As members of the Audit Committee, Einhorn, Galliker, Gray, and Nisi are responsible to assure compliance with laws, regulations or any internal rules or policies of the Company, as required by the Company's Code of Ethics and Conduct. Einhorn, Galliker, Gray, and Nisi breached their fiduciary duty of loyalty by failing to ensure that the Company had an adequate system of internal controls to identify and prevent violation of any laws, regulations or internal rules or policies. Accordingly, Einhorn, Galliker, Gray, and Nisi breached their fiduciary duties in failing their oversight responsibilities and failing to implement such internal controls and, therefore, face a substantial likelihood of liability.

95. Demand in this case is also excused as to Einhorn, Galliker, Gray, and Nisi because they (among the others) control the Company and are beholden to each other.
